John C. Horgan, on Way to Worls, Struck By Express Train -Effort to Have Superior Court Sessions Alternate Between Kingston and Westerly - Visit from Country's Champion Chess-Checker Player-Death of Rev. J. T. Docking.

Atterney John J. Dunn, of Westerly, was before the senate judiciary committee of the Rhode Island general assembly, Thursday, in advocacy of an act in amendment of and in addition to Title XXIX, chapter $75, or the general laws, of the Sessions of the Sisperior courts. Mr. Dunn likened the proposed situation to that which exists in New London accounty, where stated sessions are beid in Norwich and New London, he stated that all of the lawyers in Westerly and lawyers of prominence in other parts of the state were in favor of the proposition. At present the superior court essions are convened in Kingston and it is optional with the president of Cookman matitute, at Jacksenville, Florida, where he served of two years. He was elected president of Cookman matitute, at Jacksenville, Florida, where he served of live years. The committee assured Mr. Dunn that the committee assured Mr. Dunn that the matter would be favorably reported. The text of the bill is as follows:
Section 1. The superior court shall held its sessions, within and for the county of Washington, yearly and every year, at the times and places following, to wit: At South Kingston on the third Monday of November and April, and at Westerly on the third Monday of September and Pebruary; and said court in said county may adjourn any session thereof from one of said places to the other.

Section 2. The superior court, for

Monday of Sepiember and February; and said court in said county may adjourn any session thereof from one of said places to the other.

Section 2. The superior court, for the purposes hereinafter mentioned, shall sit in said Washington county, yearly and every year, at the times and places following, to wit:

South Kingston on the third Monday of November and April: at Westerly on the third Monday of September and Pebrary; and, at Westerly, on the first Monday in July, to hear and decide all motions, petitions and other matters made returnable on such days, in any cause of proceedings pending in said court within said county, which days shall be known as motion days; provided, that nothing herein contained dshall prevent said court from hearing and determining all such motions, petitions and matters as may arise or be brought before it at any other.
